By SCOTT HOLTZMAN

I get razzed a lot about Scott's Sneaks on The Larry Kane Show and by the DJs, so I thought I'd fight back a little.

Right now, there are six former SS's in the top 100 in the nation, plus "Society's Child" (Number 13), which I have been pushing for about a year in this column. These are: "A Whiter Shade of Pale" by Procol Harum (Number 8 in America, but Number 1 in most countries in Europe), "Let's Live For Today" by The Grass Roots, "River Is Wide" by The Forum, "Out and About" by Boyce & Hart, "My World Fell Down" by Sagittarius, and "Happy" by The Sunshine Company.

I look forward to "Splash I" by The Clique to do very well locally and, I hope, nationally. It gets better every time I hear it. There have been a lot of losers I've picked, but my batting average is improving with each swing.

Hate to announce that The Music Machine joined the ranks of groups who have split. They really gathered a following in this area recently, as I'm sure they did everywhere they went. Sad.

Hear Steve Lundy should be well and back on the job in late September. Glad to hear it.

How many have noticed Glenn Miller's "String of Pearls" at the end of The Beatles' "All You Need Is Love"? (How many of you ever heard of Glenn Miller?)

I'm very excited that The Jimmi Hendricks Experience will be here with The Monkees. There is an aura of electricity and suspense about their pictures and everything I've read about the group. They are very very big in Europe and should be able to do the same in America if my hunch is right.

The Frank Davis Foundation will soon surround you. Watch out for it.

Larry Vance bought a Cadillac convertible and Joe Ford, not to be outdone, is shopping for a Lincoln Continental. Oh, the life of a DJ.

From now on, it will be officially Diana Ross & The Supremes.

The Electric Prunes will be headlinin
